Documents

Green and amber and gold is grown,
When the sun sets in the West;
And the harvest comes over the rippling corn,
When the wind is still and sweet,
Then the farmer's heart is glad,
And he says to himself,
A man of the rippling corn,
A man of the rippling corn.

When the harvest comes over the rippling corn,
When the wind is still and sweet,
Then the farmer's heart is glad,
And he says to himself,
A man of the rippling corn,
A man of the rippling corn.
