Artist: Beady, Jackson

Date: 1984

Form: print

Biographical Info: "Jackson Beady was an artist, art advisor and cultural consultant. As a symbol of Canadian artistic and cultural achievement, his artworks were commissioned for international gifts to illustrious world figures such as Queen Elizabeth II (1979), Prince Mikasa, Crown Prince of Japan (1980), And His Excellency Edward Schreyer, Governor-General of Canada (1979). The artist was awarded the Canadian Centennial Medal in 1967; a Canada Council grant for writing in 1972; the Junior Achievement Award in 1974; and the Outstanding Young Manitoban Award in 1982. His painting, his writing and his teaching all attest to Jackson Beady's enlightened determination to recall and to record in a meaningful way the heritage of his people for the benefit of present and future generations. Jackson Beady died in 1984." (Colleen Cutschall: Jaxon Beardi - Ambassador, Alchemist, Artist. In Jackson Beady A Life's Work. Canadian Cataloging, WAG, 1994. P.21)
