Question: When did you start decide to enter Gulf War...

Answer: I did not enter at the opening of the war on account of wanting to get started working on the DFR. At which time my mother, I would carry on during... etc. etc. etc. in the army. I understand now, "Gulf" after which I was sent to Camp Hughes for this, for the summer until harvest time. At which time... etc. etc. we went out and helped farmers in the Statesboro area in the November... etc. etc. did all the digging and the helping with the harvesting until while our war harvest leave continued. After which we stayed in camp until November, expecting to go overseas at last, but instead we were moved to Naples where we stayed in the center for building until from November until around March. In March we started back to train until around the North House until arriving in Okinawa early in the morning and marched up the main street to the parliament buildings and they then back

History /

Biographical:

Eric Bamford Gowler was born on September 2, 1901 in Toronto, ON. His family moved to Grenfell, SK in 1904, and that is where he received his schooling. From 1920-1926, Eric worked as a bank clerk for Dominion Bank in Grenfell, Regina and Boissevain, moving to the latter in 1923. In 1926, Eric resigned from the bank and formed a partnership with George McDonald in an implement business. The partnership was dissolved in 1935. Subsequently, Eric took on an International Harvester dealership for tractors and machines. In 1946, his dealership was the first International Harvester dealer outside of the United States to be modernized. A significant portion of the business' success, was the publication of the advertising bulletin, "The Waggin' Tongue," which ran for twenty-two years. Eric retired in 1961, selling the business, but not the building, to John McDonald, Hugh Broadfoot and R. Nicholson. Eric married Mildred Welch (1900-1971) in 1927 and together they had two sons: Douglas and James. Eric Gowler died in 1990.

Hugh Gibson Broadfoot was born on July 2, 1935. When Gowler retired from the implement business, Hugh bought into the company along with John McDonald and R. Nicholson. Hugh married Judith Elaine Smith (1939-2022) on May 26, 1962 and together they had four children: Devron, Jason, Susan and Shirley. Hugh Broadfoot died on April 4, 2015 in Boissevain, MB. He is buried at Boissevain and Morton Cemetery.
