Part Of: RG 4 Manitoba Pool Elevator fonds
Collection: Manitoba Pool Elevator Library Collection
Creator: Manitoba Wheat Pool
Description Level: Sub-series
Series Number: MPE E 2
GMD: textual records
Date Range: 1924-1931
Publication: Winnipeg : Manitoba Wheat Pool
Physical Description: 7 v. : ill. ; 30 cm

Scope and Content:

The Scoop Shovel was the official organ of Manitoba Cooperative Conference, including Manitoba Co-operative Dairies, Manitoba Egg and Poultry Pool, Manitoba Co-operative Livestock Producers, and Manitoba Cooperative Wholesale. It was published by the Manitoba Wheat Pool. Its pages record the struggle of farm co-operators to bring to bear the principle of cooperation on agrarian economic problems and to illuminate the central importance of the cooperative principle to human affairs locally and internationally. The sub-series consists of a complete run of The Scoop Shovel.

FORWARD-ALL TOGETHER

It is longer now the Manitoba farmer complains that he has nothing to say in the price which he receives for the products of his farm.

Operating in this Province since 1920 he has the Manitoba Cooperative Elevator with 2,110 farmer members, The Grain Pool operating the two great wheat & flax elevators, The Manitoba Cooperative Poultry Marketing Association operating since 1922, now having 1,000 members. The Cooperative Wheat Elevator, which from 1916, with 100 Manitoba shippers out of 1,000 shippers in Manitoba, The Wheat Pool with 2,110 members, representing more or less handling other grain.

Every one of these cooperative organizations has been successful in getting the farmer more for the products which he has produced. They all stand more united to make sure that they are able to give him all better service. It is better that the Wheat Pool Elevator will be a better co-operative, a better elevator and a better elevator. It is better that the wheat, other products, eggs and wool through the more organizations. It is better enough cooperative theory. Let's have more cooperative action.

The Scoop Shovel
VOL. 1
WHEATPOOL MANITOBA ELEVATOR, 1925
NO. 9

The Ninety and Nine
ARTHUR G. CROWN

We have about the clever men, the men who trade
the day,
But seldom do we hear about the other ninety-nine.
The men who trade in grain, the world of commerce,
Who form the trading floors on which the clever
men may rise.

The ninety of life is not of men, but those who trade
the day,
The men who trade in grain, the world of commerce,
Who form the trading floors on which the clever
men may rise.

The ninety of life is not of men, but those who trade
the day,
The men who trade in grain, the world of commerce,
Who form the trading floors on which the clever
men may rise.

Cooperation is a word that's worthy of a thought,
It's that word that all men wish the world should know.

Each man has got his part to play, each man has his own share to play.

But for the trade that truly meets the other ninety-nine.

Documents

Two feed jackasses—now get this dope—
Were tied together with a piece of rope.
Lead one to the effect, "You come my way,
While I take a nibble at this new-mown hay,"
"I won't," said the other, "You come with me."

So they get nowhere; just passed up dies,
And oh, by golly, how that rope did hurt.
Then they faced about, those unbroken males,
And said, "We are just like HUMAN fools—
Let's pull together. F-E go your way,
Then we come with us, and we'll DO IT!"

Well, they ate their hay, and liked it, too,
And soon to be comrades, good and true.
As the sun went down, they were heard to say,
"Ah, this is the end of a perfect day."
Now get the lesson—don't let it pass,
Learn this one thing from the poor jack-rabbits:
"We must put together—in the only way,
To put farming on the map, and put it to any!"
