- OF GENERAL INTEREST -

It was a long, hard winter, but we hope you are enjoying the spring.

All reports indicate another splendid year at the old college. The strain of financial difficulties is still present, but the spirit of the institution is as ever, and good work is being accomplished year in and year out. We extend our continued and constant appreciation to Dr. Evans and the members of the staff.

The Brandon College basketball team visited Winnipeg during March, and defeated the Wesley College team in a close game at the Y.M.C.A.

Dr. C. B. Lumsden, who has been in charge of the Theological Department at Brandon for this past year, is leaving shortly to join the staff at Acadia.

Harold Batho, '26, Ph.D. from Chicago, is teaching in the Physics Department at the University of Manitoba.

Molly Bell, '35, is teaching at Kenton, Manitoba.

Rev. G. Ralph Easter, '31, Mrs. Easter (Phyllis Blandford, '32), and family, are at Yorkton, Saskatchewan, where Ralph is the minister of the Baptist Church.

Rev. Edgar J. Bailey, '33, was called recently to Tabernacle Baptist Church, Winnipeg, and was ordained there shortly after taking over his duties. He succeeds Rev. Evan M. Whidden, '21.

Evan is in Europe. He is pursuing studies at Edinburgh University, and is travelling on the continent. The last report was of a bicycle trip down the Rhine. Dr. H. P. Whidden was in London during the winter, and father and son spent New Year's day together there.

Dr. Harold P. Clark, '27, has returned to Brandon after extensive studies abroad. He pursued his work at London and Edinburgh, receiving at Edinburgh his F.R.C.S.

Helen A. Cornwall, '35, is attending the Faculty of Education, at Winnipeg.

Rev. Thos. C. Douglas, '30, was a successful candidate in last fall's federal elections. He sits as C.C.F. member for Weyburn, and is taking an active part in the affairs of the House.

Sheila L. Nixon, '35, is taking a drama course in England.

Robert G. McCulloch, '35, is working for Wood, Gundy, and Co., Ltd., Winnipeg.

Kathleen Heywood, '35, is working at the Bible House, Winnipeg.

Keith McKinnon, '35, is in the Registrar's Office at the college.

Emma Gruenke, '27, and Meta Mischpeter, '28, spent last summer in Europe.

Jane Turnbull, '15, received her Ph.D. degree at Chicago last summer.

Mrs. K. L. Fairburn (Kathleen Moffat, Music '19), of Chicago, visited the college in December.

Phyllis Cannon, '35, is working at the Bigelow Clinic in Brandon

Gordon Cumming, '35, is working for Cumming and Dobbie, Brandon.

Winnifred Harvey, '35, is teaching at Dugald, Manitoba.

Walter Harwood, '32, is attending the Faculty of Education at Saskatoon.

Marjorie B. McKenzie, '24, is Dean of Clark Hall.

Marion Thomson, '35, is attending Ontario College of Education.

Barbara Yaeger, '35, is studying Home Economics at Minneapolis.

Gertrude Godley, '27, is teaching Physical Education and English at Fort William High School, having spent a year in England taking special courses.

Frank Rose, '32, is working for the Dominion Business College, Winnipeg.

Joel Smith, '35, is working in the advertising department of the T. Eaton Co., Ltd., Winnipeg.

Betty McDiarmid, '35, is working in her father's office, McDiarmid Lumber Co., Brandon.

Jean Avery, '18, is teaching in the Commercial Department at St. John's High School, Winnipeg.

Rev. Norman Todd, '35, was called recently to the Baptist Church at Portage la Prairie, and ordained there shortly after assuming his new duties.

Bessie Bridget, '23, is teaching at Souris Collegiate.

Charlie Kerr will be remembered by many as a former member of the staff. He was a member of Ken Watson's rink which this year won the MacDonald Brier Dominion curling championship.

- RECENT WEDDINGS -
