Tennis Tournament

GAINER AND HOLSTEIN VICTORS.

lence of the weather man during the past week the fall Doubles Tennis Tournament has been concluded. A great deal of fine form and brilliant playing was uncovered during the course of the tournament, and, best of all, considerable new talent was discovered. Most of the games were closely contested as the scores show and on the whole the tournament vas one of the best held here for years. The winners, Mr. Holstein and Mr. Gainer are to be congratulated but no one was greatly surprised to see Mr. Gainer reach that coveted position. Already our worthy head of the B C. A. A. has been characterized as a combination of a Tunney, a Strangler Lewis and a Babe Ruth, so why not add a little touch of Bill Tilden?

The following is the schedule of the tournament:---

First Draw:

Winners, Pechet and Eaton, 6-2, 6-8. Wright and Black vs. Eaton and Perdue.

Winners, G. Eaton & Perdue 7-5, 6-4 Carter and Umphrey vs. Robertson and Brown.

Presentation of Arts Scholarships.

The Commencement exercises of the Brandon College Academy took place in the chapel on Tuesday evening, October 25th. At eight o'clock a full audience of the relatives and friends of the graduates, supporters of the college and students were gathered together. The graduating class entered promptly followed by the faculty and the speaker of the evening, Rev. C H. Best.

The program began with the singing of "O Canada" after which the President, Dr. J. R. Evans, opened the exercises with a brief address. The next item was the presentation of medals and scholarships in Arts I, II, and III. The scholarships in Arts III were awarded as follows: General Proficiency, Doris Dowling, qualified, Stewart Perdue, by reversion; Aikins-Scholarship and the Eleanor Beaubier Scholarship in English, Doris Dowling, Political Economy, William Derby. In: Arts II only three scholarships were won: General Proficiency, Esther Magoon; English, Esther Magoon, qualified., Hilda Harrison, by reversion; Political Economy, Bruce Carter. The number of prizes awarded in Arts 1 was more gratifying: General Proficiency, Alfred Grantham; English, Muriel Patmore; Prize for the best original composition, Vera Ulinder: Swedish, Vera Ulinder, qualified, Inga Wickerstrom, by reversion; Hebrew, Thomas Douglas; English Bible, Wilbert A. Stevens. This completed that part of the program devoted to Arts

Mr. Porter greeted those who were present to witness the exercises. He expressed his happiness that such a relatively large percentage of last year's Academy graduates have seen fit to continue their education by registering for Arts work at Brandon College. The scholarships were then full of events, the sum total of which awarded to the Academy students by their principal. Mary Shepley had succeeded in capturing the coveted

OUR LIGHTER HOURS.

Social Events in our Midst.

On Saturday evening after one of the most successful Field Days held at the College, a most successful entertainment was provided by the athletic committee. A short programme was held in the chapel prior to the presentation of ribbons and medals won by the heroes of the day. Gordon Brown gave the opening number, a violin solo.

Then a One Act Play was presented under the direction of Kay Underwood, featuring Jerrie Balmer, Helen Mann, Mr. Jolliffe and Dink Derby. The Brandon College quartette, Joss Thompson, Mr. Jolliffe, Hilmer Nordlund and Mr. C. G. Stone, substituting for Howard Hainstock gave a rousing negro revival song, followed by a touching rendition of Susan Jane.

The company then adjourned to the dining room for excellent "eats" There was a large attendance and the 100m rang with songs and laughter and wicked jibes. "Ambish" Gainer and Mr. C. Riley were to be seen in the midst fairly beaming with pride over the success of their undertaking while Jerrie Balmer and the rest of the Athletic Committee served a delicious lunch. The "tired but happy" company concluded with "Hail, Our College."

The Sunbeams are always up to something. Last Wednesday afternoon, attired in appropriate costume, the group motored out for a supper cooked with that capability particularly "Sunbeamish." To all appearances the affair was a huge success.

On Monday, October 17th, Douglas community held its annual Fowl Supper. A large group of college students, Arts I and III attended and thoroughly enjoyed the refreshments provided and the program afterward.

On Wednesday last, the call of the great out-doors was responsible for two vacant tables in the dining-room Miss Moffatt's table, joined by a party organized by the Resident Master betook themselves to Sykes' for a picnic supper. The food was smoked and burnt to just the right degree of blackness about the bonefire.

The Fowl Supper at Chater on Wednesday, October 12th, was well patronized by members of Brandon College. Arts II and Arts IV, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Chessex, Miss Bradley and Mr. Jolliffe, were present and a party comprised of the majority of the members of the faculty also attended. A delicious supper was thoroughly enjoyed. The program was excellent and the reading by Andrew Clark and the selection by the Collified excellently the ability of the 1927 lege quartette were greatly enjoyed Graduating Class of the Academy.

GIRLS TRACK AND FIELD MEET.

M. DRAPER, VICTOR.

Saturday, October 15th, dawned sunny and warm and helped make Field Day the best in years.

The girls, suitably garbed, appeared bright and early on the campus, ready for action. Their spirits were high, and each had visions of gaining a few points for her class.

It was easily seen that more tool: part this year than on previous occasions and this speaks well for the sportsmanship of both Freshettes and old girls. Of course there are always a few who carry off the honors, and we are justly proud of them, but we are just as proud of those who do their best and are not compensated with points.

Each division had their hats, horns, whistles and colors, which added greatly to the enjoyment of the event. The boys were on hand to encourage and sometimes "rattle" the girls.

The list of winners is as follows:— Running Broad Jump.

FIRST GATHERING.

"Dumb, we'll say they were dumb, but screamingly funny!" was the verfirst number on the program last Friday night. This number was given by Walter Waite and Howard Hainstock of Senior Arts. They were followed by a piano duet entitled "Sleighride", rendered in a most pleasing manner by Doris Bingham and Iloe Brandon representing music and Expression ior Arts stunt.
