Senior Arts Score Smashing Victory in Track and Field Meet as Seven Records Broken

Knee-deep in an admiring throng, the College athletes went through their paces on our 25th Annual Field Day, held on Thursday, October 13th. It is doubtful if a more successful or pleasing meet has yet been held at Brandon College. The weatherman was not unkind, the day was cold but pleasant, the rain holding off till the show was over. The meet was closed and though entries were fewer competition was very keen.

No less than seven records went toppling into the dust. Mary Coutts clipped 1.4 secs. off the old record for the Ladies Hurdles (75 yds.) Ruth Harris came back to eclipse her old marks in both the basketball and baseball throws, in the latter case doing the trick by over 21 feet.

Harold Tooke, the Freshman who "stole the show" in the Junior events, set up a new mark in the Junior 100 yds. Alec. Cameron bettered the old mark in the Senior Standing Broad Jump while Chuck Campbell overthrew the long-standing Shot Put record. In the Senior Pole Vault, Art. Brown knocked down his former record by half a foot.

The Ladies Grand Aggregate Cup went to Mary Coutts with a total of 33 points. Polly Pattison and Ruth Harris shared the honors for the Ladies Second Aggregate Medal, each with a total of 12 points. Polly Pattison also copped the Freshette Medal. Harold Tooke lifted the Junior Aggregate Medal with 26 points. Those great co-stars, Geo. Thorman and Alec. Cameron tied for the Men's Aggregate Cup, each amassing a total of 32 points. Art Brown, twice champ, won the runner-up medal with 26 pts. Senior Arts again took the Inter-class Cup with a grand total of 140 points.

Close competition was the order of the day. The "100" was an interesting race as was the "220". Both the High and Low Hurdles provided thrills while the High Jump and Pole Vault kept the customers on their toes till the event was finished. George Thorman demonstrated again that distance is nothing in his young life by taking the Senior "220," "440," "Half" and "Mile."

The awards were made in the Chapel Thursday evening, following a short snappy program featuring Master Sharpe in two piano numbers; several numbers by that pair of wise crackers Jack Edmison and George McGregor; a display of magic by Geo. Thorman, and lastly two soulful melodies by the College orchestra. The committee in charge is to be congratulated on their success in providing a perfect evening.

Tame Frosh Initiated To Alma Mater

Initiations were brought to a welcomed close on Friday October 7th with the relieved sighs of the freshies and the contented grunts of the Seniors. For another year the ancient custom is over and once more there is a universal atmosphere of safety and peace in our halls. After getting off rather easily, the freshies can now think up new and ingenious devices of torture to practice on next year's unfortunates.

The first thing necessary in a successful initiation is to make the frosh appear ludicrous. This was accomplished by their manner of dress—foot cymbals, hanging—er er—green leggings and dust caps on their hat racks. "Smashing baggage" was a favorite occupation among the freshies, who really weren't going anywhere. A comical sight, even for a freshie.

The second aim of initiations is to make the frosh look still more foolish. So we had a gala parade, which, speaking to point, was a "wow". Johnny Stapleton is besieged with movie contracts to star as the missing link and he surely takes the underwear. The Wheelbarrow Transport, Inc., under the expert management of Mr. Perkins, gave the MacArthur's something to think about in a "loady" way, and Tooke added prestige to his person and shirts when he was seen wheeling a baby carriage, with the overgrown "goo goo" holding on high a threat to our fair city. It was not generally known that Tooke was an "occasion" lady. Other groups of the new stock played their childish games and conducted themselves as befits a freshie—nertsy. After which a weary, footsore and humbled procession returned to Alma Mater's fold.

The third test for the unrested youngsters was a trip to the mysterious underground "Sen. Council Chamber," where the sacred oath of allegiance to our College was administered to our new pride. Feathers, dumbbells sticks and shoes, in the hands of capable galley masters did the rest. The freshies were then herded to the Chapel where a dumb burlesque, a mimic of true art was attempted.

Led by Keith McKinnon, the freshman's orchestra presented a musical comedy entitled "Goofus", by special permission of the copyright owner. Some small town showmen presented, next, a Tarzaniel feat of acrobatics, but the actors were escorted from the hall before any damage was done—to them. After endeavoring to detect strains of music from a comb—Kazoo—jew's harp two piece factory, the audience was informed the orchestra was out of order. A saw solo moved us to tears with its whining note of our Kentucky home in the rockies, after which the freshette chorus favored us with "Collegiate" in a pathetic manner.

Calling a halt in the program, the seniors, followed by the freshies, stepped the 440 to the larder in record time, only to find Mother Hubbard's treasure house empty—cleaned by some frosh dog-robbers. Appetites were whetted on song and soon the prodigal eats returned to circulation.

Thus was a severe (?) initiation brought to an end, and thus are fresh fruits matured.

INITIATIONS.

Another set of freshies has been initiated and once again we have settled down to a life of student harmony. But after all is said and done, are we, as senior students, satisfied with our present system of initiations in Brandon College? A large number of us are not and have openly said so. Wherein, then, lies the fault? Certainly not in the hardworking Initiations committee, which did a fair job this year considering the current student opinion and the lack of enthusiasm. This lack of enthusiasm on the part of the senior students may be due to several reasons. Some students are simply tired of the practice, others argue that it is a foolish custom which ought to be abolished and others are "fed up" with the tame initiations we have been having in the past, advocating extreme hazing as practiced in some of the larger North American Universities.

It is true that our initiations have been sadly lacking in interest during the past few years and as such, the advocacy for abolishment is in order. It is also true that the custom is an old one and a privilege of the seniors; yet in Brandon College at least the custom is waning. To the citizens of Brandon, the initiation parade is a comic annual event but to some senior students it is a disgusting one. After the parade one senior was heard to remark that the event was more humiliating to himself than to the freshies of whom he was in charge. Others were indifferent to such a degree as to miss the downtown spree altogether.

Strangely enough, the thought of abolishing initiations is one which is strong in Canadian Universities today. The University of Alberta has gone so far as to abolish them entirely, substituting a Freshman's smoker and a Freshette function. Extreme hazing has been prohibited in the faculty of science at the University of Manitoba and in the U. of B. C., where a student discipline committee has been appointed to deal with hazing. Other Canadian Universities are taking similar steps.

Student opinion in Brandon College has reached such a point that the question will probably be settled definitely one way or the other, next fall or earlier. Certainly something ought to be done about the quality of initiations if the custom is to continue in our College.

And this without prejudice.

EDUCATION AND FEES.

Following the recent unfortunate investment matter at Manitoba University, which resulted in the raising of fees, other Canadian Universities have also found it expedient to take the same step for other reasons. The latest among these is McGill University, besides some of the Western institutions of learning. The results are obvious; many students have been unable to continue. Therefore, we at Brandon College must consider ourselves fortunate to be able to continue our studies at a cost cheaper than anywhere else in Canada. More thanks to our loyal financial supporters in Brandon and elsewhere.

BASKETBALL TONITE.

The College will be represented by two teams again this season, the girls and junior boys. Definite line-ups are not yet announced but both teams will be strongly represented when they tackle the Collegiate quintettes at the "Y" to-night. The first game starts at 7 p.m.

INTER-SCHOLASTIC TRACK MEET IN ARENA SATURADY.

A field and track meet is to be held in the Arena on Saturday, Oct. 22, when representative athletes from the Collegiate, Normal, Tech and College will be seen in competition. The ruling which prevents any athlete from entering more than three events will prevent a walk-away and allow all the institutions to be point winners. The College will be out in full strength to cop the premier honors and will be well represented by our various Field Day winners.

INTER-SCHOLASTIC SOCCER LEAGUE.

The Inter-scholastic Soccer League is away to a big start. The league is made up of the Collegiate, Technical School, the Normal and the College. To date the strong squad from the Tech have not lost a game and certainly hand out a convincing brand of football. The College, handicapped by the lack of training, are tied with the Collegiate for second place. The Normal quad are settled comfortably in the cellar position.

The first game on the campus featured the College vs. The Tech. The mechanical boys, most of whom have been playing all summer, were too good for the College lads. The final result was a 3 to 0 score for the Tech. For the College Rowe in goal was a shining light and certainly prevented a larger score, and Howland turned in a performance which was a treat to watch. The line-up for the College: Rowe, King, Harwood, Kerr, Howland Fraser, Wilson, Klenman, McGregor, Buss, Tooke.

In the second game the College outfit showed a complete reversal of form. This time they took the Normal squad for a 3 to 1 count. The Normal was outclassed from the start and the College lads kicked in three goals before the Normal came to life. Brown scored the first goal with Howland repeating shortly after with a penalty kick. Brown turned the trick again on a combination play with Klenman, the vest pocket flash. Negrych saved his team from a shut-out with a timely goal. The whole College team played hard and were good value for their win. Prof. J. N. Anderson handled both games in his usual efficient style. The line-up was: Rowe, King, Fraser, Kennedy, Howland, Klenman, Wilson, Brown, Kerr, Stein and Buss.

BADMINTON CLUB FOUNDED.

This winter, for the first time, an opportunity is afforded the College sports enthusiasts to learn Badminton. The two athletic associations offer a full season's membership for $1.00, racquets and a supply of birds included. Good playing hours have been secured, and there will be plenty of time for everyone to get in a game. The main objection to Badminton has always been the expense, and at a dollar a season we think a good number should seize this chance to learn a game of rapidly growing popularity, which has heretofore been confined to the moneyed people, and to the big cities.

Badminton is something the same as tennis, being played at singles and doubles, and placing the emphasis on speed and dexterity, rather than on muscular strength. Singles, particularly, is one of the fastest games, all shots of course being taken on the volley. It is just as suitable for women as men, and in a very short time one can play well enough to enjoy it. Altogether, we think you will like Badminton, and we ask you to help the Athletic Association by signing up immediately.

TENNIS.

The tennis tournament is progressing apace and at the time of going to press the semi-finals had almost been reached. The weather man has not dealt kindly with the racketeers and most games have been played in the cold and wind. Still some good games have been turned in and there should still be some good days yet for the finalists to fight it out. Singles results. Fraser beat Young 6-4, 0-6, 6-4; Foster beat Dunfield 6-2, 6-2; Kenedy beat Wright 4-6, 6-0, 6-4; Kerr beat Buss 6-0, 6-2; B. Fraser beat Clement 9-7, 1-6, 7-5; Schacter beat McKinnon 6-2, 8-6; Cohen beat Ingram 8-6, 6-2; G. Brown beat White 6-4, 6-1.

Down to the fours in the women's tournament.—O. Morrison, E. Strachan, K. Robertson, R. Wade.

SPORT SALAD.

The College is justly proud of her two athletes who co-starred on Field Day. Geo. Thorman and Alec. Cameron are a promising pair both in field and track circles and should give a good account of themselves in any company.

* * *

By the way, a noticeable feature of the Inter-scholastic league games is the way in which the students are staying away in droves. The boys are dishing out an interesting brand of football and deserve better support than has been accorded them up-to-date. C'mon fans!

* * *

Mention should be made of the snappy way in which the events on Field Day were run off. The paim goes to those in charge for this pleasing feature.

ARTS '33 FOWL SUPPER

Little Souris received a treat last Wednesday when Arts '33 motored out in Condell's cattle truck for their annual fowl supper. Only one stop was made en route.

The cooks of Little Souris Inc. were prepared for the onslaught of hungry Seniors. The service was excellent; the dinner everything that could be desired.

When Hunter had finished her fifth piece of pie the class decided to call it a day. Judging from the satisfied smile on every face the function was a huge success.

ARTS II FOWL SUPPER.

At 5 p.m. on Wednesday, October 12th, several carloads of Arts II students set out for Beresford. A number of the boys of the class were absent for many unknown reasons, but those present did their part in entertaining. Never have we seen such a spread as that fowl supper was. It would only be painful to the nonparticipants to list the platters of turkey, pies (especially lemon), the chocolate cakes, tarts and the cocoanut kisses. After several moments, spent busily and silently with a groan, Frank Samis undertook to lead a cheer. It was a little late but we made a valiant attempt, realizing the supper was too much for us. It was with real regret that we left the still well-stocked tables but we had sincerely followed the old advice, to eat, drink and be merry, for there were no classes on the morrow.
