

PUBLISHED BY THE UNDERGRADUATES OF BRANDON COLLEGE

* EDITORIAL *

There will be plenty of opportunity, in the coming few days, for eager Students of Brandon College to show their "College Spirit" - and to have some excellent entertainment as well. Tonight Miss Matilda Dallas, advanced pupil of Prof. Wright, is presenting a Piano Recital at First Church United. Most of us know the quality of Miss Dallas' talent, and are waiting eagerly to hear her. To those who have not yet had the good fortune to be present when Miss Dallas was playing, our only advice is to be early at First Church tonight.

Then there is Saturday's Basketball Game, when Brandon College will need all its yelling force. The Athletic Assn., has exerted a great deal of energy to arrange this game, and the team deserves your ready support.

Elections are over. Perhaps it is a good thing we hold them so early in the year, the next few months will give our wounds time to heal! And all oratory aside, though this is probably the 'cleanest' election on record in Brandon College, it is surprising how many innocent bystanders get involved in the struggle, and how many 'dirty looks' are still being cast.

Arts II went tobogganing on January 30th - and 'a good time was had by all' (who were there) The ski enthusiasts had a little party all their own, and ended by bringing in George McGregor a gory casualty. Beans and weiners and rolls and doughnuts finished a satisfactory evening at Barbara Yaeger's.

ELECTIONS

On Monday, January 29th, an excited group of students met in Room "H" for "Nominations" - After the nominations there were three days of hectic campaigning! with coy "Won't you waer this ribbon and vote this way please?" Is it any wonder then that the Chapel was divided into three sections, the staunch McKinnonites, the enthusiastic Smithsonians and (according to the campaigners) "the Sheep" who had not yet made up their minds? The speeches were all the way from eager, little please to impassioned declamations. And at 6 o'clock promptly all campaigning stopped. Then on Friday, blase old-timers and expectant ones cast their votes with a prayer in their hearts - Excitement ran high throughout Brandon College and Clark Hall from the time the polls closed at 6 until results were announced by "Graham McNamee" Thorman at nine after an excellent program - when McCulloch and Schmause played three well-received duets. Laurie and Helen gave the "Irish Washerwoman", Irene Bowman sang delightfully and her encore was especially enjoyed. "Little" Peggy Sharpe was, as usual, charming and appreciated. Then to gasps and cheers the results were made public, and next year's executive consists of -

Keith McKinnon, Senior Stick
Marion Thomson, Lady Stick.
Bob McCulloch, President of Lit.
Winifred Harvey, President of Debating,
Vera Gainer, C.H.SCM.
Frank Samis, B.C. SCM.
Polly Pattison, C.H.A.A.
Tommy Morison, B.C.A.A.
Muriel Bell, Secretary
Prof. Fraser, Honorary President.

"Eavesdropping again" says Adam, as his playmate fell out of the tree.

B.C.A.A. TO MEET M.A.C. BASKETBALL

For the first time in three years, the basketball feud between the College and the Aggie is to be settled Saturday night at the Y.M.C.A. This is to be a double bill with the Aunt Betty's vs Brandon girls All-Stars, and the feature game of the evening - B.C.A.A. vs M.A.C.

The College quintette are in the best of condition, and although no official line-up has been given, it is rumored that the forward-line will be - Bennest, Shorman, Kennedy, Campbell, Parker, Cameron. The guards, Keppel, Allen, Stapleton.

The boys are financing this venture on their own, and bringing a fast travelling squad up who should provide plenty of action. All students are asked to get out and back up the basketball boys, both in their ticket sales and cheering. Brandon College's three Cheer Leaders will also be seen in action, so let's all make this a gala All-College function!

***** STRAND THEATRE *****

LAST SHOWING OF "LITTLE WOMEN"

FRIDAY NIGHT

See The Four Marks Brothers in "Duck Soup"
SATURDAY - and - Next Week.

COLLEGE DEFEATED BY COLLEGIATE 6 - 3

The College Hockey Squad went down to defeat under the fast travelling Collegiate to the tune of 6-3. The game was not as one-sided as the score indicates, the play being evenly divided. Cumming, Wright and McTavish scored for the Alma Mater, with Keppel playing a starring game for the Collegiate.

Among the many notables who took down the old blades for another season were Dode "Hips" Cumming, "Rabbit" Wright, and "Torpedo" Morisson. New additions are Egilsson, Bennest, Cowan and McTavish. Keppel was seen between the 'pipes' and sometimes sliding on his stomach somewhere in the vicinity of centre ice. Among the missing were "Butch" Brown, famed left-winger and muscle man. The line-up -- Keppel, Egilsson, Bennest, Wright, Cummings, McTavish, Cowan, Morisson.

COLLEGE HOCKEY SQUAD TO MEET TECHNICAL SCHOOL

Today sees the College bad-men in action against the Technical School. This should prove to be a bruising game, to say the least, and with the 'iron-men' one game up and the "students" are down - well, you see it for yourself!

Voice on the wire - "Is Mike Howe there?
Voice on other end - "What do you think this is - the stockyards?"

Edmison - (married a month) 'My wife's an angel'
McGregor (married a year) 'I've still got mine'

ARSS III - HOLD SUCCESSFUL FUNCTION

On Monday, February 5th, Arts '35 ataged their most successful function yet. Tobogganing was the order of the evening and the turn-out almost 100%. The draw was made for partners in the main hall with everyone present, and evidently proved satisfactory. Afet an hour of real fun the party returned to the home of "Dode" Cumming for lunch.

FOLLOW THE CROWD TO THE OLYMPIA