Annual Two-Way Inter-Varsity Debate Monday

United Colleges and Brandon College will meet in verbal tilts next Monday in Winnipeg and Brandon on the resolution "Resolved that Education in the various provinces should be placed under the control of the Dominion Government." Brandon College will support the affirmative in both cases. In Brandon, Frank Samis and Del White will meet Fred Westwood and Murray Smith from Winnipeg. In Winnipeg George Cowan and Bill Potorbka, representing Brandon College will uphold the affirmative against George Marshall and Gwen Henderson.

During the evening, Mrs. J. H. Aitchison will play several pianoforte selections. The members of the Winnipeg team will be entertained by the Debating Society executive and the Debating Club during their stay in Brandon.

DEBATING CLUB TO ARGUE JURY SYSTEM

The resolution "Resolved that the jury system should be abolished" will be debated Thursday afternoon, when the debating club will meet. Polly Pattison and Walter Dinsdale will speak for the affirmative side against Evelyn Bowen and Douglas Rupp.

Unusual Interest Shown In Campaigning and Voting

Earl Mills and Doris Fraser are the Senior Stick and the Lady Stick for the year 1936-37, an excited crowd learned in the chapel Friday night. Mills expressed his appreciation to all who had worked and voted for him, and promised to fulfill his duty as Senior Stick to the utmost of his ability. Doris Fraser, absent because of illness, was represented by Dode Hemmons, who said that Miss Fraser sincerely thanked all who had voted for her and will try to fill the position as well as her predecessors have.

Other Officers Elected

Reg. Gardiner, president of the Literary Society. He reiterated the statement made in his campaign speech. "I promise to maintain the high standards of the Literary Society."

Walter Dinsdale, president of the Debating Society. Walt thanked all who had voted for him, saying that he hoped it would be his last year in office, since he wished to graduate in the near future.

Frank Ball, Senior Men's Representative. Mr. Ball was absent.

Annie Waychock as Senior Ladies' representative. Miss Waychock expressed her thanks and promised to do her utmost to justify the confidence the college has placed in her. "Willie" Frayne, Junior Men's representative. Mr. Frayne was also absent.

Donna Keppel, Junior Ladies' representative. Miss Keppel's message was brief and to the point. "I thank those who voted for me, and I'll do my best, like I said I would."

Mary Murray, president of the S.C.M. Miss Murray, absent because of illness, was represented by Helen DeMarsh, who expressed her appreciation to those who have voted for her. Marjorie Thompson, Secretary of the B.C.S.A. Miss Thompson graciously thanked all who nominated and elected her.

Gwen Munt and Pat Heywood, defeated candidates for Lady Stick, publicly congratulated Doris and Bob Beamish defeated candidate for senior Stick, also congratulated Earl Mills in a hearty, sincere manner.

An enjoyable social hour followed the business of the evening, when a sing-song was held in the residence dining-room, accompanied by refreshments, and interspersed by congratulations to all the honoured students. Elva Way presided at the piano during the sing-song; Polly Pattison was in charge of the refreshments committee and Dorothy Walker of the clean-up committee.

The pleasure of the evening was somewhat marred by the fact that Doris Fraser, Lady Stick Elect, and Mary Murray, new president of the S.C.M., could not be present due to illness. Doris Hemmons and Helen DeMarsh represented Doris and Mary during the programme.

GORDON FORBES TO EDIT MEN'S ISSUE OF QUILL

Gordon Forbes, second-year student and present exchange editor of the Quill, will take over the editorship of the Quill next week, when the paper will appear through the work of the men members of the staff. This issue will be the first issue of the Quill since November to appear under the editorship of a man student and will prove the truth of the saying that "a change is as good as a rest."

And now the only thing that can make a girl turn is a little soap, if she uses soap.

SERIES OF SERMONS BEGAN YESTERDAY

The Chapel services this week are being conducted by Rev. C. C. (Kelly) Stone of Edmonton, his subject will be throughout his talks, "Towards a better understanding of Religion."

Dr. Lumsden pointed out in chapel Saturday morning that this subject is not to be thought of with resentment, but regarded with the idea that religion is the purpose and the understanding of life.

Rev. Stone, who during his stay in Brandon will be living in residence will be glad to have informal discussions and talk with anyone who would like to see him. He will also speak informally and briefly at a joint vesper service each evening at 6.45.

CLARK HALL GIRLS DEFEAT AGGIES IN BASKETBALL GAME

Seniors Did Not Arrive Because Car Broke Down Near Portage; Royals Win From College In Second Battle.

Brandon College girls scored a thrilling 13-12 victory over the Aggies at the Y.M.C.A. Saturday night with a large crowd in attendance.

The senior Royals provided exciting entertainment in the fastest game of the season.

Ladies Game

Close and rough from the start, there was seldom more than a one-point advantage for either team. The score 6-6 at half time brought about by field goals of P. Pattison and A. Bigelow and two one-point sinkers of Keppel and Waychock. M. Hastings and M. McIntyre, members of Manitoba Varsity seniors accounted for the Aggies tally.

The second half was more active, being marked by scrimmages and (Continued on page 3.)

DID YOU LOSE YOUR VOTE

If you lost any one of your votes in the elections of last week, you should take a vital interest in the affairs of the Main Executive next year. That is, if your vote was registered with the considerations of the policies and the abilities of the candidates and not for mere personal reasons.

This college could benefit from an increased interest on the part of the general student body in the business of its governing council, the main executive. While much can be expected from the new members of the executive for next year, there are some students who did not support them in voting and these students, for the reasons they did not vote in the winning manner, especially, should follow up the work of the main executive.

To the members of next year's executive, the Quill extends good wishes for its success and co-operation between the executive and publication staff.

THE BASKETBALL GAMES

Those in charge of the basketball games on Saturday night are to be commended for the manner in which they handled a difficult situation when the Men's team from Agriculture could not show up. The audience is to be commended for the spirit in which they heard the disappointing news and the Royals team is to be commended for getting together a team on short notice and winning the game from the College men.

MEN, WE PROPOSE

The men of Brandon College are for the greater part, boys, and if they realized this fact and dropped their pseudosophistication and acted their natural selves they would be better liked. No girl around the college expects any of the male students to be men of the world or devastating play-boys, but thinks of them as good eggs and lots of fun and it is when they act as such that the girls like them best.

Now, boys, that you know this, we, that is your sister students will tell you some more do's that will make us like you even more:

Be forward, but not aggressive unless you think the girl in hand prefers cave-man tactics. If you are at a dance, you are there to dance and do so.

Be courteous. Take your hats off when you're supposed to. Be not only polite to girls, but to professors and above all do not talk of other girls maliciously or in ridicule. Most girls if they are worth your affection will ward you off with the idea that you will talk similarly of her.

And now a don't. Do not tell smutty stories or make suggestive remarks in front of girls.

If you like a girl, do something about it. Your chances are as good as your room-mates. Keep asking the girl of your dreams out till she accepts. If she is like most co-eds she will accept on the first bid.

Finally be neat.

That's all boys. You're good kids and we think a lot of you. Just be yourselves and make yourselves known and make us happier.

If you have trouble in telling the front from the back of streamlined cars, just notice the driver. Front is the way he isn't looking.

VALENTINE VICE VERSA

The 14th of February
Leap year at that.
The girls should be dating,
And tipping their hat.
The order reversed—
Bashful boys—big, bold girls,
And no one be missing
The Valentine whirls.

To the boys we are writing
This Valentine week,
To show all you men
We aren't really so weak.
We'd ask for our dates
Two days in advance,
And not wait till after
The start of the dance.

And when we were feeling
Big-hearted and kind,
We'd ask out the fellows
Who always went blind.
But Valentine's day,
Is no time to repeat
The "would do's" and "ought to's"
With which to compete.

With candies and sweethearts,
Both kinds if you please,
The world will be smiling
With laughter and tease.
The boys would be last
If the girls all retreated,
And I'm sure girls would die
If they could not be treated.

SNOOPER'S COLUMN

Scoop of the week: Interesting portions of Fred Ramsay's side of an hour and fifty-nine minute length phone conversation Tuesday night: "Two college girls came in and sat down across from Hemmons and me when we were out to dinner: No, I didn't sit by them; I wouldn't sit by anybody but you . . . You never say it when we're not talking over the phone (in wistful tones) . . . Say what do you think I am, the broken record? (in loud tones) . . . Well, at least I don't take any other dames out (in angry tones) . . . All right, phone Thursday night . . . You don't trust me? This is one man you can trust!" 'Tis rumored that the party on the other end of the wire is a nurse in the "house on the hill"; also that our little Freddy went to see her on foot on one of the coldest nights last week. Looks like he's got it bad.

And who was the kid with Gwennie at the "Y" Dance? He's a new one on us.

Found: One gold locket of the antique variety with Bert Fraser's picture reposing therein. Owner please apply for same at Quill room.

We nominate Bob "Beetlebrow" Hemmons for Dictator of Brandon College. His motto—"Service with a kick."

Speaking of romances, it sort looks like a good one brewing between Boom and Alice.

What's this we hear about that nice little Brydon McKay pulling a chair from under the Sunday school teacher?

We're just wondering where Danny goes on all those trips. Every time we see him, he's burdened down with a suit-case.

ELECTED

DORIS FRASER

Doris hails from Pilot Mound, Manitoba, where she received her early education. She entered Brandon College as an Arts II student, and has been prominent in student activities. She is poised, makes friends easily, and is a hard worker. Coupled with these qualities is great executive ability, which should make her the ideal Lady Stick. She likes everything but history essays.

EARL MILLS

The Senior stick-to-be is twenty years of age, has lived in Fort William and Toronto, as well as Brandon. He is a capable person, having held offices as president of Junior Arts, assistant cheer leader, member of the Debating Society executive, business manager of the play, news editor of the Quill, publicity manager of Brandon College Students Association, vice-president of the International Relation club and associate editor of the Sickle. He has had much experience and will undoubtedly be a success as Senior Stick. He is noted for his oratorical ability, and professes a weakness for loud ties and ear-muffs.

Seniors Give Royals First Reverse Of Season; Juniors Win; Clark Hall Loses by One Point

Starting right in at the tip-off, the College seniors served notice on the Royals that they were going to give the league leaders a battle all the way. Both teams travelled a little too fast for accurate ball handing, personal fouls were numerous during the latter parts of the first and second halves.

The Collegians were two points up at the end of the first half due to some nice basket finding by Ball. The second period, the students established a lead they never relinquished. In the final stages they played a strong defensive game to hold the Royals out, although the latter team missed some wide open chances in the closing minutes.

Gordon Kirk played a smart game on the back line for the College, while Einar Egilsson got away for eight points in the second half to keep the students out in front.

College—Kirk 3, Egilsson 8, Keppel 9, Fraser 4, Ball 6.

Royals—Thompson 2, Taylor 2, Mann, McLeod, Earles 9, Millar 2, Mummery 4.

College Juniors 14, Royals 13

This was a hard checking battle, and inclined to be rough and ragged. The shooting from the free throw line has been much better, both teams missing some glorious chances to stow the game away. The College enjoyed a two-point lead at the end of the first half. The Royals showed signs of returning to life in the second period, but Williams tossed in the winning basket near the end of time to clinch the result for the students.

The line-ups and scores.

Royals—A. Milne, N. Milne 4, Hilton, Thompson, Elliott 7, Constable 2.

College—Cannon 2, Reed, Williams 4, Schachter, Potoroka 2, Ostrander 2, Robertson 6.

City Girls 18, College 17

The girls played for too cautiously in their game, and for a long time in the first period the score stood 2-0 for the league leading City squad. At the half-way mark they led 8-7. Pat Heywood, playing her best game of the season, started the Clark Hall line-up on a scoring spree which put them ahead of their opponents, but the City team fought back hard to get the winning basket just a minute before the final whistle. Heywood's eight points were high, with Parker six and Beaton four, topping the winners' total.

City—E. Adolph, I. Beaton, 4. A. Wharry 2, Prokaski, Trent 4, Parker 6, Ellis 2, Willdey.

College—Heywood 8, Keppel, Pattison 2, Robertson 2, Waychuk 2, Bigelow 3, Mann.

floor hugging. Pat Heywood, guard counted 5 in the second half, together with a second goal by Bigelow gave the one point victory to the home team. McIntyre and Hastings again scored for Aggie, the former being the greatest menace of the evening.

The game which produced eighteen personal fouls was well handled by J. Casey and J. Millar.

Lineups

M.A.C.—E. Morton, I. Hart, M. Graham, B. Tillman, D. Graham, B. Morrison, M. McIntyre, 6, M. Hastings 6. Total, 12.

B.C.—P. Pattison, 2, P. Heywood, 5 A. Waychok, 1, F. Robertson, D. Keppel, 1, A. Bigelow, 4, M. Mann. Total 13.

Royals 24, College 21

The game made possible by the friendly rivals of the College boys was the most exciting of the season, with "colorful, crowd-pleasing" Jack Keppel shooting baskets from all angles, the Collegians took a good lead in the first half carrying a 15-8 advantage to the dressing room at half time.

The second half reversed the fortunes as Johnny Millar sank 3 beautiful shots. His team rallied and successive points by Mann, McLeod, Earles, Mummery and Thompson sent the Royals to victory. The Collegians scored but twice in the second half. This game marked by 29 personal fouls was handled efficiently by J Casey.

Royals—Taylor, 2, Millan 8, Thompson 2, Fletcher Mummery, Earles, McLeod 3, Mann 2. Total 24.

B.C.—Kirk 2, Egilsson 1, Clement, Keppel 7, Robertson 3, Fraser 4, Frayne 2, Cannon 2, Ostrander. Total 21.

We think we are in trouble but we wonder what predicament we would be in if we got what we deserved.

Social Notes

After the basketball games Saturday night an informal reception was held in the Y.M.C.A. for the members of the teams and athletic board. Refreshments were served by Marjorie Thompson, Winnie Watson, Gwen Munt and Helen Pattison.

Later spectators and players met each other at a social hour on the "Y" floor. Music was provided by Wilf Carpenter at the piano.

On Sunday afternoon, Polly Pattison entertained the members of the visiting basketball team at tea at her home before they left for Winnipeg. Miss Marjorie McKenzie presided over the tea cups and the hostess was assisted in serving by Ruth Bell, Gwen Munt, Fern Robertson and Helen Pattison. Also present were Miss Daisy Kitchingman, president of Girls' Athletics at M.A.C., Miss Jean Duncan, Marjorie Thompson, Winnie Watson, Pat Heywood, Bessie Kent, Miss Marjorie Alcippe, and Mr. Art Hobbs, coach.

The plans for this issue of the Quill were made Thursday noon, when the co-ed members of the staff held a luncheon in the clubroom. Evelyn Bowen poured tea from a pot without a handle and following the repast Norah Penton, at the piano helped the gals to shake off the effects of forgetting to count calories. Those present were: Betty Balmer, Norah Penton, Evelyn Bowen, Patricia Heywood, Kay Kidgell, Aley Winter and Helen Pattison from the Quill and Ann Waycock, Donna Keppel, Mary Doyle and Edith Reid who joined with the staff at luncheon.

Mr. Schachter: "Harold, my son, why do you go up the stairs two at a time?"

Harold: "To save my shoes."

Mr. Schachter: "Well, be careful you don't split your pants."
