FABIAN SOCIETY.

---

July, 1912.

Applications for Lectures from the following List should, as a rule, be made to the Organizing Secretary, W. Stephen Sanders, The Fabian Society, 3 Clement's Inn, Strand, W.C. Full particulars as to date, place, hour and nature of meeting should be given, and as long notice allowed as possible.

Those Lecturers whose names are marked with a star (*) are willing to speak in the open air.

Courses of three, four, and five successive lectures, by different lecturers, on separate aspects or parts of the same subjects, are often more popular than isolated lectures. Courses on The Cause and Cure of Poverty, Pressing Political Problems, and the Bases of Socialism can be arranged. Full notice of the lectures should be given to the local press.

SUPPLY OF LITERATURE.

The educational effect of lectures will be much increased if arrangements are always made to enable the audience to obtain, at the meeting, publications giving further information on the subjects dealt with. The Fabian Tracts will be found useful for this purpose, and those arranging for lectures are recommended to obtain a five-shilling assorted parcel, containing Tracts saleable retail for 7s. 7d., which will be sent on application. A list of the publications of the Society will be found on the last page hereof.
