

THE FABIAN SOCIETY.

FABIAN OFFICE,
3 CLEMENT'S INN, STRAND,
LONDON, W.C.

DEAR SIR OR MADAM,

Election of Candidates.

Owing to the increase of work in the Office, due in the main to the unprecedented growth of the Society, it has been for many months impossible to send to newly elected candidates the usual notification of their election, a somewhat lengthy form which has to be filled up specially for each new member. The pressure on the time of the staff and other circumstances render the issue of these letters of notification for the present impracticable. I am therefore directed by the Executive Committee to send you this formal intimation that you have been elected a member of the Society, with an apology, where applicable, for the delay which has already occurred.

I am further directed to request you to give me full particulars if you are able and willing to participate in that part of the work of the Society which is organized through the central office: for example, lecturing, writing, or investigation of social phenomena.

I am also to remind you that the circulation of our publications is one of the most effective means of promoting the objects of our Society, and that you would do well to provide yourself with any that you can use amongst your circle of friends.

I am, dear Sir or Madam,

Yours faithfully,

EDW. R. PEASE,
Secretary.
